The self study is very important as we look at our instruction and student outcomes. We always strive to offer the best programs possible for our students!

ACCREDITATION

We are now two weeks from the accreditation visit. Teachers should be preparing their classrooms, tri-fold boards and notebooks. If you need any guidance please see your site administrator. Starting this week, site administrators will review trifold boards, notebooks and classrooms.

If you need any supplies for your room or trifolds, the Bookstore has butcher paper for bulletin boards, assorted borders, glue sticks and other supplies. You may stop by the Bookstore or send/call in a request from other campus for delivery. There is no need for a requisition form for these supplies.

The Faculty Handbook has been updated and complete copies are in the main office of each campus. An abridged version is available on the website

We are also attaching a copy of the completed WASC Self-Study book for all faculty and staff to review before the WASC Visiting Team arrives.

We are looking forward to having the Visiting Team see all that we have to offer our students here at North Valley Service Area!
